BEING ABLE TO TRAVEL IN THE COMPANY OF LOVED ONES IS ONE OF LIFE'S GREATEST EXPERIENCES

The Region of Valencia is beautiful and safe, and its people are warm, welcoming, and generous, making it the ideal destination for families. Its provinces of Castellón, Valencia and Alicante provide a warm, privileged environment with a wide variety of natural, urban, coastal, leisure and entertainment offerings for every family.

Beaches and coves, themed and interpretive routes, guided tours, museums, gastronomy, nature and the environment... we offer all this and more, so that you and the little ones can together discover the Region of Valencia.

Traveling as a family is not just about arriving at a destination, it's about the discovery and exploration of new and exciting paths, it's about sharing enjoyable moments, laughter and experiences. With splendid weather and a wide range of offerings and services, you can relax and enjoy the Region of Valencia at your leisure.

CASTELLÓN

Castellón is the northernmost province of the Region of Valencia, an enchanting land characterized and shaped by the significant contrasts between its coastline and natural spaces found further inland. As the second most mountainous province in Spain, it features incredible landscapes and towns that will take you back to the Middle Ages, complemented by a magical coastline of 120 kilometers, replete with lovely coves and beaches and bathed by the calm waters of the Mediterranean.

You can choose, for example, to spend some leisurely days on the beach, with a multitude of services for the little ones. Or you may venture inland and discover the beauty and tranquility of eight Natural Parks boasting over 1,000 kilometers of approved trails. Not to mention our two Rail Trails, a fascinating way to discover truly unique natural environments with your little ones.

VALENCIA

Valencia, the central province of the Region of Valencia, offers traveling families a variety of natural spaces of singular beauty, a land blessed with lagoons, rivers, mountains and extensive fields, orchards, orange trees and rice paddies as far as the eye can see.

Gastronomy is very important to the people of the province of Valencia. Their superb cuisine, with its amazing variety of seafood and rice-based dishes, has won over visitors from around the world. Cultural and nature tourism are also of great importance to the province. Here, in fact, there are many museums, monuments and other vestiges of the Roman and Arab civilizations that once inhabited these lands.

The province of Valencia features some of the longest beaches in the Region of Valencia, in addition to the traditional coastal destinations and services that have made families feel at home for generations, all within reach of surprising inland destinations.

ALICANTE

Alicante, the southernmost province of the Region of Valencia and known as Costa Blanca, is famous for its extensive beaches of fine sand, hidden coves and crystalline waters, as well as for its peaks and cliffs that extend to the sea, with unique landscapes and spectacular overlooks that are ideal for visits with family.

On the coast you will find magnificent spaces to relax by the sea, in addition to a multitude of theme and water parks that are perfect for younger kids.

As you travel further inland, you will discover picturesque towns, surrounded by mountainous reliefs crowned by imposing castles which date back to medieval times.
